“Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven”

Lord, I pray today that You would rule and reign in my life. I pray that You would help me to be the person, the Christian, the parent, the spouse, the child, the friend, and the minister that You have called me to be.

Lord, I pray that You would rule and reign in my marriage. I pray that You draw us closer to You and closer to each other than we have ever been. I pray for my spouse today that You would watch over them, protect them, and bless them this day.

Lord, I pray that You would rule and reign in my family. I pray for each child/grandchild individually that for their:

- 1) spiritual condition,
- 2) spouse or future spouse,
- 3) support – that God would put friends and mentors in their lives that would lead them closer to the Lord.

Lord, I pray that you would bind Satan from our home, and that this home would be a place where disciples are being made for Your glory.

Lord, I pray that you would rule and reign at Locust Hill Baptist Church. I pray for our staff and their families. I pray for our deacons and their families. I pray for any outreach efforts or events that are coming up. I pray for those that are hurting and homebound in our church family. I pray for those that still need Christ in our community, and for our mission partners.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

This is the time that I personally pray the armor of God as I prepare for the battle ahead. This is all straight from Ephesians 6:10-18.

To prepare myself for the battle ahead, by faith I put on the belt of truth. The Truth about You Lord is that You are a sovereign God who knows everything about me, both my strengths and my weaknesses. Lord, You know my breaking point and have promised not to allow me to be tempted beyond what I am able to bear. The truth about me Lord is that I am a new creature in Christ and have been set free from the power of sin. I am indwelt with the Holy Spirit who will guide me and warn me when danger is near. I am Your child, and nothing can separate me from Your love. The truth is that You have a purpose for me this day – someone to encourage, someone to share with, and someone to love.
(Ephesians Chapter 1-3)

Next, Lord, I want to by faith put on the breastplate of righteousness. I know that it is impossible for me to be righteous apart from the saving work of Jesus Christ. So, I confess my sins to you. Forgive me of my sins – cleanse me from my unrighteousness-and rather than seeing me today - see me through the blood of Jesus, which alone makes me righteous. Forgive my sin, and keep me from sin today! May the words of my mouth, and the meditations of my heart, be pleasing in Your sight today Oh Lord. (Rom 3:23, 6:23; John 3:16; 1 Jn 1:9)

Lord, by faith I put on the sandals of the gospel of peace. Help me to go where You send me today, and be ready to tell others about You when you give me an opportunity. I am available to You Lord. Send me where You will. Guide me to those who need encouragement or physical help of some kind. Use me to solve conflicts wherever they may arise. Make me a calming presence in every circumstance in which You place me. I will not be hurried, for my schedule is in Your hands. I will not leave a trail of tension and apprehension. I will leave tracks of peace and stability everywhere I go. Here am I Lord, send me! (Isaiah 6:8)

I now by faith take up the shield of faith, Lord. My faith is in You and You alone. Apart from You, I can do nothing. With you, I can do all things. No temptation that comes my way can penetrate Your protecting hand. I will not be afraid, for You are going with me throughout this day. When I am tempted, I will claim my victory out loud ahead of time, for You have promised victory to those who walk in obedience to Your Word. So by faith I claim victory even now because I know there are fiery darts headed my way even as I pray. Lord, You already know what they are and have already provided the way of escape. (John 15:5, Prov. 3:5-6, Is. 40:31, Matt. 6:33)

Lord, by faith I am putting on the helmet of salvation. You know how Satan bombards my mind day and night with evil thoughts, doubts, and fears. I put on this helmet that will protect my mind. I may feel the impact of his attacks, but nothing can penetrate this helmet. I choose to stop every impure and negative thought at the door of my mind. And with the helmet of salvation those thoughts will get no further. I elect to take every thought captive; I will dwell on nothing but what is good and right and pleasing to You. (1 Cor. 2:16, 2 Cor. 10:5)

Last, by faith I take up the sword of the Spirit, which is Your Word. Thank You for the precious gift of Your Word. It is strong and powerful and able to defeat even the strongest of Satan's onslaughts. Your Word says that I am not under obligation to the flesh to obey its lusts. Your Word says that I am free from the power of sin. Your Word says that He that is in me is greater than he that is in the world. So by faith, I take up the strong and powerful sword of the Spirit, which is able to defend me in time of attack, comfort me in time of sorrow, teach me in time of meditation, and prevail against the power of the enemy on behalf of those who need the truth to set them free. (Heb. 4:12, 2 Pet. 1:21, 2 Tim. 3:16, Ps. 119:11 & 105)

So, Lord, I go now rejoicing that You have chosen me to represent You to the lost and dying world. May others see Jesus in me, and may Satan and his hosts Shudder as Your power is made manifest in me. In Jesus' name I pray – AMEN.
